

MCCORMICK GRILL MATES SURPRISED LABOR DAY RV TRAVELERS WITH EXCLUSIVE POP-UPS

Vacationers received on-the-road grilling essentials and exclusive flavors of Grill Mates seasonings in partnership with RVshare and Kampgrounds of America

HUNT VALLEY, Md., Sept. 5, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- Today, McCormick® Grill Mates® visited three of America's top 15 Labor Day weekend RV destinations¹ to surprise and ask outdoor enthusiasts, "RV Grilling Yet?" There has been a high demand for RV rentals leading up to this Labor Day weekend, with RV reservations up 50 percent according to RVshare, the first and largest peer-to-peer RV rental marketplace.² The one-day only pop-ups provided RV travelers and campers with everything they needed to make a great tasting meal on-the-road.

Close to 1,500 grab-n-go grilling kits were safely distributed to travelers over the course of the day. They were a huge hit amongst consumers who were excited to try the exclusive Grill Mates all-purpose seasoning blends. They also received essential grilling tools, recipes, and tips.³

Within hours, bags were quickly distributed to a steady stream of happy campers, who then set out for their Labor Day weekend plans, well-equipped to fire up the grill. Even a select few lucky travelers received golden ticket items – redeemable for future Kampgrounds of America (KOA) stays, portable grills and coolers, grilling thermometers, and more.

KOA, the world's largest system of open-to-the-public campgrounds, has reported that camping and road trips are likely a re-entry point for a third of leisure travelers as restrictions are lifted, even among those who have never camped before. Knowing RV rentals and camping have emerged as a cultural phenomenon as families look for safe, cost-effective, and fun ways to travel and explore America's natural beauty, Grill Mates was excited to meet fans near these national parks:

- Great Smoky Mountains National Park (Cherokee KOA)
- Rocky Mountain National Park (Fort Collins KOA)
- Glacier National Park (West Glacier KOA)

"More than ever, families cherish special moments together during these unprecedented times," said Jill Pratt, Chief Marketing Excellence Officer at McCormick. "This Labor Day weekend, we loaded up the RV and set out with one important mission, and that was to bring the perfect flavor to grills across America's iconic campgrounds. We wanted to ensure that every griller, expert or first-timer, had the tools and spices they need to confidently cook a delicious meal this holiday."

This was the first and only time this year for grillers to get their hands on exclusive new McCormick Grill Mates seasonings. Made especially for grilling, these versatile blends contain high-quality spices that can be used to easily and quickly season a variety of meats and vegetables.

The exclusive Labor Day weekend grilling seasonings included:

- McCormick® Grill Mates® Smoked Paprika & Onion with Garlic & Pepper
- McCormick® Grill Mates® Cracked Pepper & Garlic with Sea Salt
- McCormick® Grill Mates® Garlic & Crushed Herbs with Salt & Pepper
